Holy Week 2019 at City Road Chapel

We are only a couple of weeks away from Holy Week, that special time between Palm to Passion Sunday and Easter in which we focus especially on the meaning of the cross in preparation for the celebration of Christ's resurrection. Here is our Holy Week Schedule for 2019:

◆ Sunday, April 14 – Palm to Passion Sunday (8 & 10 a.m.)

Palm to Passion Sunday is a worship service that tracks the story of Jesus from his triumphal entry into Jerusalem to the crowds shouting "crucify him!" We start the service off with the waving of palm branches and journey with Jesus to Golgotha.

◆ Wednesday, April 17 – Wesleyan Love Feast (6 p.m.)

For the past several years we have gathered in the Welcome Center on the Wednesday night of Holy Week for a love feast in the Wesleyan tradition. Bring a finger food to share as well as a story, poem, or song that connects you to the passion story.

◆ Good Friday, April 19 – The Service of Nails

Good Friday is the night in which we remember the death of Jesus on the cross. Our service this night will focus on how we participate in Christ's death through our own human sinfulness. This service will include scripture and music featuring our City Road singers and others.

◆ Sunday, April 21 – The Celebration of Christ's Resurrection

It's Easter Sunday and we will gather in the sanctuary at 8 and 10 a.m. to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ! This is always a meaningful service filled with music and joy. Don't miss celebrating Easter at City Road Chapel!

New Study for After Easter
Making Sense of the Bible

One of the greatest struggles for many today is the place of the Bible in helping them live as disciples. We know that the Bible is the Word of God, but how we understand the words isn't always clear. Where did the Bible come from anyway? How do we begin to understand it? Starting on Sunday, April 28, Pastor Jay Voorhees will be leading a study using Adam Hamilton's book, "Making Sense of the Bible." This study is good for folks new to the scriptures and old hands who need to see the Bible with new eyes. Get this on your calendar today!

Carnival Time at City Road

The City Road Child Development Center is having a family carnival on Friday, April 12th from 5:00 – 7:00 p.m. This event will take place in the church gym. There will be fun for all ages- carnival games, face painting, door prizes, cupcake walk, food and so much more. The carnival is the end of the week-long event called the “Week of the Young Child”. This is time set aside to celebrate our youngest learners.

Please stop by and show your support.

Madison Community Feast Update

Sunday, the 24th of March, City Road Chapel served a free meal to all comers from the community. Forty Seven guests were served a delicious dinner with all the fixings and most were able to take a second helping with them as they left. Eighteen volunteers setup, cooked, made deserts, served, washed dishes, took down tables and put away chairs. That is what they did as far as the dinner was concerned but what was equally important was the time they spent talking with the guests and letting them know that they are important. City Road has truly loving, caring, loyal people who want to help others. Thank you to each one. To God be the Glory!

Thank you –

We want to express how much we appreciate your support during our time in need. Thank you to the Living Word Sunday School class, Pastor Jay for the visits and prayers and all the calls, text, food and most of all your love and support. Thank you for being there for us. Our life is blessed with some of the most amazing people.

We love you very much,

Mike and Anita Kay Schofill
