Making Sense of the Bible

One of the greatest struggles for many today is the place of the Bible in helping them live as disciples. We know that the Bible is the Word of God, but how we understand the words isn't always clear. Where did the Bible come from anyway? How do we begin to understand it?

Starting on Sunday, April 28, Pastor Jay Voorhees will be leading a study using Adam Hamilton's book, "Making Sense of the Bible." This study is good for folks new to the scriptures and old hands who need to see the Bible with new eyes. Get this on your calendar today! The Madison Community Feast - Update

The Community Feast of last Sunday was well attended by 47 hungry guest and prepared and served by 18 eager and loyal volunteers. The delicious meal was made up of a breaded pork chop, mashed potatoes with brown gravy, broccoli and a roll. Then came much desert and a drink. The food was enjoyed by all comers and most took a second meal home with them. Jay, Jim and Janet provided a wide range of musical entertainment during the meal to the delight of all present.

Thank you volunteers for setting up, cooking, serving, washing dishes, cleaning up and providing personal attention for each guest. You are special people. To God be the Glory!
