Today we welcome Sammy Anderson who is our Project Transformation paired intern. She is serving at the Matthews Memorial UMC Project Transformation site this Summer. In the Fall, she will be returning to the University of Alabama for her senior year. Sammy is majoring in Human Development and Family Studies with a concentration in Child Life. She hopes to become a Child Life Specialist upon graduation.

Project Transformation is about building relationships between children, college-age young adults, and churches. Sammy, thank you for loving our Madison children during your summer of service.

Piano Recital featuring Matt McNeil

Matt McNeil, our former music director, is coming back to City Road Chapel on Sunday, July 28, 2019, for a special concert of piano music. Matt is an accomplished player and you will be blessed by this concert. The concert will start at 2 p.m. and be held in the sanctuary. Talk to Linda Fletcher for more information on this special concert.

A few week ago, the congregation was asked what kinds of small group studies they would like to participate in. You told us you would most like to do Bible study. So, we are offering two weekday morning Bible studies beginning in July. On Tuesday mornings, July 23 to Sept. 3, Linda Fletcher will teach Priscilla Shirer's book "The Armor of God", from Ephesians 6. Then on Thursday mornings, July 25 to Sept. 5, Emily Stinson will lead us in a study of Simon Peter, the faithful but flawed disciple. We hope you will prayerfully consider taking part in one of these studies as a way to grow in your faith. Look for sign-up sheets on the desk in the Welcome Center.

News from our CDC Director

A thank you for all that bought gift cards and went to CiCi's.

Continue to go to CiCi's every Tuesday in July.

July 25th from 5-9 Baskin Robins at the Madison location.

Betty Woodard passed on Monday and she is the beloved sister of Ann Rittenberry. Please remember this family in your thoughts and prayers
