Updates from City Road Chapel

March 5, 2023

Second Sunday in Lent

Welcome to Judy Wright and Sid Naylor

For the coming weeks, we will be joined by a variety of guest musicians in our morning worship service. This week we are honored to have Judy Wright and Sid Naylor assist us in making a joyful noise to our Lord.

Judy is a friend of City Road Chapel and a songwriter and Americana artist in Nashville. She's known for her soulful singing and writing, and we are blessed to have her join us today.

Sid Naylor is a long-time friend and the husband of Debbie. Sid plays fiddle, mandolin, and banjo and hails from the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Thanks also to Jim Walden and Janet

Pasinger in helping to lead our worship this morning.

Feast Community Meal Update

This past Sunday we had a wonderful team of folks from City Road Chapel and St. James the Less Episcopal Church gather to prepare, bag, and distribute some 2000 meals throughout the community. We also were blessed to have almost 40 individuals join us in-person for dinner which is the largest number we've seen since before the COVID pandemic. Thanks again to Jim Neely and Mike Schofill for their leadership this past week, and all the volunteers who come out each month to ensure that those in need are fed.

Leadership Board Meeting March 16, 2023 at 6:30 p.m.

Our next gathering of the City Road Chapel Leadership Board is coming up soon. All are welcome to join us in-person or via Zoom. Go to cityroadchapel.org/leadership for more information.

First of our Quarterly Spiritual Growth Retreats a Success!

This past Saturday over 30 individuals from City Road Chapel, Donelson Heights UMC, Matthew's Memorial UMC, and from throughout the area, gathered in our gym for the Walking in the Wilderness Lenten Retreat. The Rev. Amanda Diamond, pastor at Donelson Heights and a former member of City Road Chapel, led the group in thinking about various prayer practices as they work to connect with God. All involved said that it was a positive experience!
