NEW LIFE ALL AROUND US

You can see it everywhere right now - trees starting to bud, flowers blooming, the days getting a little longer and brighter. After the stillness of winter, everything feels like it's waking up again. It's hard not to notice the sense of new life all around us.

That same kind of renewal is at the heart of this Easter season. It's not just something we celebrate for one Sunday - it's something we're invited to live into every day. God is always at work, bringing new life into places that may have felt tired, stuck, or worn down.

Maybe for you, this season looks like a fresh start in a relationship, a renewed sense of hope, or simply the courage to take one small step forward. It doesn't have to be anything big or dramatic. Sometimes new life begins quietly, in the smallest changes.

Wherever you find yourself right now, know that God isn't finished yet. Just like the world outside is slowly coming back to life, God is continuing to grow and renew something in each of us.

Let's lean into this season together - with open hearts, a little bit of hope, and a willingness to see what new thing God might be doing.

A kindergarten teacher was walking around observing her classroom of children while they were drawing pictures. As she got to one girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was. The girl replied, "I'm drawing God." The teacher paused and said, "But no one knows what God looks like." Without looking up from her drawing, the girl replied, "They will in a minute."
