A FATHER'S LEGACY

Today, we celebrate Father's Day and give thanks for the fathers, grandfathers, stepfathers, mentors, and father figures who have helped shape our lives. While no earthly father is perfect, Scripture reminds us that fathers have a unique opportunity to reflect the love, guidance, and faithfulness of our Heavenly Father.

In Deuteronomy 6:6-7, God's people are instructed: "These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. Impress them on your children." One of the greatest gifts a father can give is not wealth, success, or possessions, but a living example of faith. Children may not remember every lesson they were taught, but they often remember the character, integrity, and love they witnessed.

The Bible is filled with examples of faithful fathers who sought to follow God and lead their families in righteousness. Their stories remind us that a godly legacy is built one day at a time through prayer, encouragement, forgiveness, and trust in the Lord. Whether a father is raising young children, guiding adult children, or serving as a mentor to others, God can use his influence to make an eternal difference.

As we celebrate Father's Day, let us give thanks for those who have loved, taught, protected, and encouraged us along the way. Let us also remember those for whom this day may be difficult because of loss, separation, or disappointment. May we find comfort in the promise that God is a loving Father to all His children and that His steadfast love never fails.

"As a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord has compassion on those who fear Him." - Psalm 103:13.
