

THE CHAPEL CHRONICLE

CITY ROAD CHAPEL

1st Sunday

As we celebrate Independence Day this weekend, we give thanks for the many blessings we enjoy as a nation. More importantly, we remember the greatest freedom of all - the freedom found in Jesus Christ. As Scripture reminds us, "So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed." (John 8:36)

This holiday is also an opportunity to pray for our nation, our communities, and those who serve and lead them. May God grant wisdom, peace, and compassion to all, and may He help us be faithful witnesses of Christ wherever we live and serve.

As Methodists, we believe that faith is lived out through love in action. Every act of kindness, every meal shared, every prayer offered, and every helping hand extended reflects Christ's love at work in the world. Our freedom in Christ calls us not only to gratitude but also to service.

As summer continues, let's remain committed to worship, prayer, and fellowship. Whether you're at home or traveling, make time to stay connected with God and your church family. Together, let us celebrate the freedoms we enjoy while living each day as ambassadors of Christ's hope and love.

What's a miracle that can be done by a complainer? Turning anything into whine.
