5th Sunday

"Therefore encourage one another and build each other up."
1 Thessalonians 5:11

Today is a special Sunday at City Road Chapel as we take time to share our testimonies - the stories of how God has worked in our lives.

Every one of us has a story. Some testimonies are dramatic, while others are quiet stories of God's faithfulness through ordinary days. Some tell of answered prayers, difficult seasons God helped us through, unexpected blessings, or times when God gave us strength when we didn't think we had any left. Sometimes our testimony is simply, "God has been with me every step of the way."

Our stories matter because we are not walking this journey alone. We are a church family. When one of us is hurting, we can pray. When one of us is celebrating, we can rejoice. When someone feels discouraged, we can offer encouragement. And when someone shares how God has carried them through a difficult time, their testimony may give someone else the hope and strength they need to keep going.

You don't have to be a preacher or have an extraordinary story to share. Your testimony is simply your story of God's presence in your life.

So this morning, listen to the stories being shared. Celebrate God's faithfulness. Encourage one another. And if you feel led to share your own story, don't be afraid to speak up. Your words may be exactly what someone else needs to hear today.

We are a church family, and our stories help remind us that God is still working among us.

😊 At our prayer meeting, I asked my pastor to pray for my hearing. He placed his hands over my ears and prayed earnestly for me. When he finished, he asked, "Is it better now?" I told him, "I'm not sure. I guess we'll find out Monday after my court appearance!"
