One Table, One Family

Today, Christians around the world celebrate World Communion Sunday. It is a special reminder that when we gather around the Lord's Table, we are part of something much bigger than our own congregation.

Christians will be sharing Communion in churches across different countries, cultures, languages, and traditions. Some may worship in beautiful cathedrals, while others gather in small country churches, homes, schools, or places where Christians face hardship. We may worship differently, but we share the same Lord and gather around the same Table.

World Communion Sunday began in 1936 as a way for Christians to celebrate their unity in Christ. It has grown into a worldwide observance that reminds us that the Church is not limited to one building, denomination, community, or country.

There is something beautiful about knowing that as we receive the bread and cup, Christians around the world are doing the same. We are reminded that God's family is wonderfully diverse, yet we are connected by our faith in Jesus Christ.

It is also a day to remember our responsibility to one another. We are called to pray for our brothers and sisters in Christ, to welcome others, to serve those in need, and to look beyond the walls of our own church.

So this World Communion Sunday, as we come to the Lord's Table at City Road Chapel, take a moment to look around. The people sharing Communion with you are part of your church family - but they are also part of a much larger family of faith stretching around the world.

One Table. One Lord. One family of faith.

What a wonderful thing to celebrate!

How many of each animal did Moses bring onto the ark? None! Moses was never even on the ark! Come on, didn't you Noah that?
