Faith Is More Than Sunday Morning

It's easy to remember our faith on Sunday morning. We're at church, surrounded by familiar faces, singing hymns, hearing God's Word, and hopefully remembering to turn our phones off! But what happens when Monday rolls around? Does our faith go to work with us, ride along on our errands, or join us in the grocery store line when someone has 27 items in the 10-items-or-less lane?

The truth is, our faith isn't meant to be packed away until next Sunday. It's meant to be part of our everyday lives. It shows in how we treat others, how patient we are when things don't go our way, and how willing we are to lend a helping hand. Sometimes sharing God's love doesn't require a grand gesture. It might be a smile, an encouraging word, a little extra patience, or simply taking the time to listen.

We don't have to be perfect Christians to make a difference. We just have to be willing to let God's love shine through us. So as you head into another week, remember to take your faith with you. After all, Sunday worship is only the beginning of the week, not the whole assignment!

CenterWell

CenterWell Senior Sunday - Today

Make plans to join us after Sunday School if you are 55 or older.

This month's topic is Overcoming Depression and Anxiety. These sessions offer interesting, informative discussions and helpful information for everyday life. Light refreshments will be served. We hope to see you there!

An elderly husband offered to get his wife an ice cream sundae with vanilla, chocolate sauce, whipped cream, and a cherry. She begged him to write it down, saying he'd forget. He insisted he wouldn't. He came back with a ham sandwich—and his wife looked at him and said, "I KNEW it! You forgot the mustard!" 😄
